Pukeiti holds the largest collection of rhododendrons in the Southern Hemisphere.

The Pukeiti Rhododendron Trust Inc.'s goal is to support the conservation and growth of this unique recreational plant collection, to continue to raise national and international awareness of the garden, and to increase community ownership of this treasured community amenity.

We welcome you to join our community! Member benefits include:

- Regular newsletters and the annual Rhododendron journal
- Full member's voting rights
- Exclusive members' plant purchase scheme
- Volunteering in the garden and during public events
- Exclusive members-only events

You are invited to join our community/renew your membership. Please choose from the following options:

Annual Subscription $30.00 (Membership currently valid until 30 June 2018 for individuals, couples and families. Please list everyone by name below.)

In addition, we offer the following Endowment Memberships (one payment only):

Individual $1750 Senior Individual $1100 Benefactor $5500 ($3850 tax deductible)

Endowment subscriptions are invested in the Pukeiti Trust Fund Perpetuity account. Income from this Fund contributes to projects within the garden, the conservation rainforest and our internationally recognized collection of rhododendrons, many of which are on the international "Red List" of endangered plants.
